WHAT I SAW, AND HEARD.

Hon. J. Milton Turner is in town, looking as well and hearty as usual. I have often heard politicians remark that he is one of the most polished Negroes in this country. Milton Turner is able, he has a great future if he would only embrace the opportunities before him. I admire the man for his polished manners, bravery and ability. He deals with men like a man; he possesses manly courage and dare express his convictions, be they right or wrong. He is, no doubt, the only Negro in this country that has successfully carried out a great scheme that redounds to his race as well as to his own benefit.

There is a man some where in Pine Bluff, Ark., by the name of J. C. Dukes, who has mistaken cowardice for bravery, cheek for ability, an ass and a mule's head for a human being and settled down on the good people of that State as a pauper refugee from Alabama. J. C. Dukes would make a better mule driver or a donkey trainer than he would an editor. He has mistaken his calling. His place is on a scavenger cart instead of a newspaper. Why should the people of Alabama want such a thing as to remain in the State? Now it can be seen why this thing is in Pine Bluff.

It has been remarked that the Lodge National Election bill will not pass the Senate. There is no reason to have any apprehension that the Senate would not dare to pass such a bill. I am satisfied that the people of the North want the helpless voters in the South to be protected; I am also confident that this is a government "of for and by the people;" in name any way and it is only necessary to enforce the laws to make it so in fact.

The people of this city are anxious to know whether Recorder Bruce intends to make any changes in his office. I think it is about time to remove the enemies and put in our friends. There is no reason why that immediate changes should not be made in the Recorder's office and the places be given to our District people.

The report in the Freedman's Hospital investigation has been submitted to the Secretary of the Interior, but the charges were so ridiculous and unimportant, that the Secretary has not found it necessary to have them printed. I suppose, however, for the satisfaction of those medical aspirants he will print the Committee's report to give them summer reading.

It is presumed that Congress will be in session until the last of August or probably until October. The National Election bill will be taken up some time and no doubt be the last measure that will be considered by the Senate.

Mr. John W. Ross, although a Democrat, has made more appointments of colored letter carriers than all other city postmasters since the foundation of the City Post office. He has given the young graduates of our Normal department a show, he has promoted the young colored man without fear or favor I have the highest praise for Mr. Ross.

Some people get too smart for themselves. They have an idea that they know it all; that the mere fact of their having the endorsement of a United States Senator that they can do all kinds of rascality at pleasure. They are mistaken and if they don't think so, the later part of this month will convince a few of them.

The promoters of the recent indignation meetings at their last meeting, apologized to the Judge of the Police Court and all of the Officers. They concluded that they had been beautifully sold out by the parties in whose interest they were working. I am of the opinion that indignation meetings will be things of the past.

W. Calvin Chase, attorney at law, practices in all the courts of Virginia and the District of Columbia. Office at present, 1109 I St., n. w. Titles searched, deeds and other legal papers carefully drawn.

THEY SAY

He must go.

The Land office and all other offices will be careful in the future. Right is bound to prevail.

Time will tell, if I am wrong.

These were the parting words to the scoundrel.

If I am wrong, I shall fall, if you are wrong justice will be vindicated.

Off with his head; so much for Buckingham.

This is the way all just men are treated.

Right is bound to be vindicated. If justice is buried it is bound to rise again.

Sin once buried it remains so.

Let us have a few changes in the Recorder's office.

Hungary Republican want something to do.

Be careful what you say.

What you speak confidentially, be sure that you can trust him.

Don't confide in everyone.

What has become of the Junior Excelsiors?

The editor of the Western Mule (Echo) will visit the city soon, with his associate ass.

H. C. Smith of the Cleveland "Gazette" will hear some news in a few days.

The National Election bill will pass.

Rev. Thomas Peek, of Munella, Ga., wants the Negroes to emigrate to Africa.

The United States is warm enough for us.

Be wise in all you do.

It is natural for men to deceive.

The pit that was dug for Jack, Jill fell into it.

Col. Fred. Brackett is a soldier.

Genl. Ordway ought to appoint another Court Martial.

The last one was the most incompetent that was ever established.

Genl. Ordway is not all to blame.

J. W. Cromwell has again assumed the editorial charge of the "Advocate."

Prices must be too High-J. W. C.

People must cut low these hard times.

High Price will do when the market is not so full.

James H. Smith will resign the secretaryship of the Howard Law School.

Leighton and Birney want all the honors and all the salary.

They will want the earth next. Smith has made the Law School what it is.

Never desert a friend it is dangerous.

An honest friend is hard to find.

When you find him keep him.

Read the Bee and be happy.
